

OLAER Charity Cycle Challenge 2012 for Médecins Sans Frontières

Dear Sir/Madam,

Olaer is delighted to present the OLAER Charity Cycle Challenge (3C) 2012! This long weekend challenge links two great European cities, London and Paris covering around 300 miles/ 482 km. Approximately 65 participants (Customer, Suppliers, Olaer Employees and stake holders) will cycle this distance in just four days (from the 20th until the 23rd June 2012).

Our objective is to raise at least £100,000 for our chosen charity, Médecins Sans Frontières / Doctors without Borders.

Kevin Rasefske & Ryan Binder are cycling for the Olaer USA team. They started training in December and are looking forward to the challenge. It would motivate even more when they discover people are supporting Olaer in the wish to raise the money for Médecins Sans Frontières / Doctors without Borders.

You can help us accomplish this goal! Every pound/dollar/euro you donate will go directly to Médecins Sans Frontières / Doctors without Borders! You can add a motivating message for Kevin & Ryan when you make a donation.
